

General Mathematics Rubric

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Understanding Math Concepts	The student shows little understanding of math concepts.	The student shows some understanding of math concepts.	The student shows considerable understanding of math concepts.	The student shows thorough understanding of math concepts.
Applying Strategies	The student fails to apply any strategies learned.	The student applies strategies learned with some effectiveness.	The student applies strategies learned with considerable effectiveness.	The student applies a variety of strategies learned with a high degree of effectiveness.
Communicating	The student rarely communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate math language.	The student sometimes communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate math language.	The student usually communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate math language.	The student almost always communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate math language.
Participating in Group Work and Class Activities	The student shows no interest in any group work or class activities.	The student only participates in group work and class activities with encouragement.	The student participates well in group work and class activities.	The student participates in group work and class activities with enthusiasm, and encourages others to participate as well.
Completing Class Work	The student rarely focuses on class work or completes it within the given time.	The student focuses on class work and completes it within the given time only with supervision and guidance.	The student focuses on class work and completes it within the given time with little supervision and guidance.	The student focuses on class work and completes it within the given time without supervision and guidance.
Homework Quality	The student's homework contains many errors due to misunderstanding of major concepts.	The student's homework contains some errors due to misunderstanding of minor concepts and carelessness.	The student's homework contains some errors due to carelessness.	The student's homework contains few or no errors.

Teacher's Comments:

Social Studies Rubric

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Understanding Content	The student shows limited understanding of the content.	The student shows some understanding of the content.	The student shows considerable understanding of the content.	The student shows thorough understanding of the content.
Developing and Applying Skills and Processes	The student fails to develop and apply any planning and processing skills, and use critical and creative thinking processes.	The student develops and applies planning and processing skills, and uses critical and creative thinking processes with some effectiveness.	The student develops and applies planning and processing skills, and uses critical and creative thinking processes with considerable effectiveness.	The student develops and applies planning and processing skills, and uses critical and creative thinking processes with a high degree of effectiveness.
Communicating	The student communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate vocabulary with limited clarity and effectiveness.	The student communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate vocabulary with some clarity and effectiveness.	The student communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate vocabulary with considerable clarity and effectiveness.	The student communicates orally, visually, and in writing using appropriate vocabulary with a high degree of clarity and effectiveness.
Relating and Applying Knowledge Acquired to the World outside School	The student relates and applies knowledge acquired to his/her own family or community, past and present communities, communities across Canada, and countries around the world with limited effectiveness.	The student relates and applies knowledge acquired to his/her own family or community, past and present communities, communities across Canada, and countries around the world with some effectiveness.	The student relates and applies knowledge acquired to his/her own family or community, past and present communities across Canada, and countries around the world with considerable effectiveness.	The student relates and applies knowledge acquired to his/her own family or community, past and present communities, communities across Canada, and countries around the world with a high degree of effectiveness.
Participating in Class Discussions and Activities	The student shows little interest in class discussions and activities.	The student only participates in class discussions and activities with encouragement.	The student participates well in class discussions and activities.	The student participates in class discussions and activities enthusiastically, and encourages others to participate as well.
Quality of Assignments and Projects	The student's work shows little inquiry and research into the content area.	The student's work shows some inquiry and research into the content area.	The student's work shows considerable inquiry and research into the content area.	The student's work shows detailed inquiry and research into the content area.

Teacher's Comments:
